

THE ROYAL SOCIETY: ITS ORIGINS & FOUNDERS (1960)

EDITED BY SIR HAROLD HARTLEY, F.R.S.

To mark the Tercentenary of the Royal Society a group of historians were invited to write biographies of twenty-one of the early Fellows including the twelve Founders. The volume also includes a critical study of our sources of information about the Society's origins by Professor D. McKie. A lasting memorial of the foundation of the Society.

Cloth bound, 275 pages and 29 plates, £1. 15s., post extra ($6.00, post free).

A BRIEF HISTORY OF THE ROYAL SOCIETY (1960)

E. N. DA C. ANDRADE, F.R.S.

A short narrative of the history and development of the Royal Society from the time when a few progressive men decided to found a body for the investigation and encouragement of experimental science until the present day.

Cloth bound, 29 pages and 14 plates, 10s. 6d., post extra ($2.00, post free).
